- 6.3 You are responsible for backing up any data that You submit to Us (including but not limited to Customer Data), and You acknowledge that while We take all reasonable precautions, there is a risk that any data submitted to Us could be lost.

7 SERVICE PRICE, SUBSCRIPTIONS AND RENEWALS

- 7.1 The Service Price is described in the Specifications. You agree to pay the Service Price in accordance with this Agreement.
- 7.2 We may offer a free Trial from time to time, with no applicable Service Price. If a free Trial is available, the details will be published on the Platforms and Specifications at the time that You register Your Subscription.
- 7.3 Subscriptions may be purchased on a month-to-month or fixed term basis. From time to time We may offer a range of different Subscriptions.
- 7.4 Your Subscription will automatically renew upon the expiration of the current Subscription Term, and You will be charged the applicable Service Price according to the payment schedule specified at the time of Your renewal, unless You have terminated in accordance with our termination terms. For custom Subscriptions, unless a subsequent custom renewal offer has been agreed upon, the Subscription will either renew on the applicable terms of the new custom agreement or, if such terms are not available, convert to a standard Subscription at the prevailing standard Service Price in accordance with clause 7.12. You will be notified in advance of any changes to the Subscription terms, and given the option to accept the new terms, choose an alternative Subscription, or terminate the Subscription prior to the renewal date.

- 7.5 Different Service Prices may apply, depending on the Subscription purchased by You. Additional fees will apply (either under this or a separate agreement between us) if You purchase any Extras or if You also engage Us to provide Additional Services and/or Out of Scope Services.
- 7.6 If Your use of the Subscription Services exceeds the Service Limit set out in the Specifications and the Fair Use Policy, additional fees may apply, and shall be calculated in the manner set out in the Specifications.
- 7.7 The Specifications set out the total applicable Service Price, taking into account the relevant Subscription and the Service Limits set out in the Fair Use Policy. You agree to pay the Service Price and any additional fees as calculated in accordance with these Terms and the Specifications.
- 7.8 Unless otherwise stated in the Specifications, Our Subscriptions will allow You to create up to three Member Accounts at no additional cost. If You wish to create more than three Member Accounts, then additional fees may apply, in such amounts as stated on Our Platforms at the time that You add the relevant Member Account.
- 7.9 The Service Prices for Our Subscriptions are stated in the Specifications at the time that You register or renew Your Subscription.
- 7.10 We reserve the right to update the Service Prices or applicable charges and to institute new fees and prices at the end of the Initial Subscription Term as set out in the Specifications, or the current renewal term, upon thirty (30) days prior notice to You (which may be sent by email). By purchasing or renewing a Subscription and/or by continuing to use the Subscription Services, You agree to the applicable Service Prices as stated at the time of Your registration or renewal.
- 7.11 If We are unable to process the applicable Service Price via Your nominated payment method then a notification email will be sent to You using the email You provided in Your Billing Information. If You do not provide an alternative payment method or ensure that sufficient funds are available, You will enter into arrears which will be handled in accordance with clause 9. Your access to the Subscription may also be restricted, suspended, or terminated in accordance with clauses 8, 9, and 10.
- 7.12 Unless otherwise specified, all custom Subscriptions are offered for a fixed term or fixed duration. Upon the expiration of the fixed term, if no subsequent custom renewal offer has been agreed, the Subscription will automatically convert to a standard Subscription at the prevailing standard Service Price, unless You terminate the Subscription prior to the renewal date, in accordance with our termination policy. No additional notice will be provided for this rollover.

- 7.13 Where applicable, any goods or services tax, charge, impost or duty payable in respect of these Terms or the supply of any goods or service made under or in respect of these Terms and any other taxes, duties or levies will be paid by You at the then-prevailing rate.
- 7.14 If You swap from a month-to-month plan to a fixed-term plan at any time during Your Subscription, any unused credit from Your month-to-month plan will be credited towards Your fixed-term plan. You may also upgrade Your Subscription at any time during the fixed term (e.g., upgrading from an annual Analyse plan to an annual Sell plan), with any applicable pro-rated charges being applied. Downgrading Your Subscription during the fixed term, including after an upgrade, is not permitted.

8 PAYMENTS AND BILLING

- 8.1 Payments for Service Prices and any other applicable fees must be made by debit card, credit card or third-party payment processor in advance, or such other method as confirmed by Us in writing.
- 8.2 Subscriptions may be purchased on a range of payment schedules, including but not limited to:
- (a) Annual subscriptions with upfront payment,
 - (b) Annual subscriptions with monthly payments,
 - (c) Fixed-term subscriptions with upfront or periodic payments. The specific payment schedule applicable to Your Subscription will be set out in the Specifications.
- 8.3 We may choose to or agree to bill through an invoice. If We issue an invoice for Your Subscription or any other fees, full payment must be received in accordance with the Payment Terms specified in the Specifications or the Offer. If no Payment Terms are set out in the Specifications or Offer, payment is due within fourteen (14) days of the invoice issue date. By providing Your debit card, credit card, or other payment details, You authorise Us to deduct the Service Price and any other applicable fees from Your account on the specified due date.
- 8.4 For Subscriptions with recurring payments, such as annual Subscriptions with monthly or other periodic payment schedules, payments will be automatically deducted from Your account according to the specified schedule. If a payment is missed or declined, We may suspend or terminate Your Subscription as per the Termination clause.

- 8.5 We do not process any payments directly on the Platforms or store credit card information on the Platforms. All transactions are processed through a third-party payment processor with secure payment technology. When purchasing a Subscription, You may be required to agree to the third-party payment processor's terms and conditions.
- 8.6 If You believe that We have billed You incorrectly, You must contact Us no later than sixty (60) days after the date that You received the invoice in which the error or problem appeared, in order to receive an adjustment or credit. Inquiries should be directed to Our customer support department.
- 8.7 We reserve the right to charge interest on any unpaid amounts at a rate of 1.5% per month, or the maximum permitted by law, whichever is lower, plus all expenses of collection and may result in immediate termination of Service.
- 8.8 If You pay by credit card, transaction fees may apply.

9 PAYMENT ARREARS

- 9.1 If automatic payment for Your Subscription fails, or if an invoice remains unpaid by the due date, Your account will go into arrears. Subscriptions will not be automatically terminated due to non-payment. If You wish to terminate Your Subscription, You must do so explicitly via the termination process described in the "Subscription Term and Termination" clause below. Failure to terminate means Your Subscription will continue, and the cost will accumulate.
- 9.2 In the event of a failed automatic payment, Orkestra will retry Your payment method periodically to attempt to process the payment. Arrears will continue to accumulate, and the total outstanding balance must be paid before You can terminate Your Subscription.
- 9.3 If Your account remains in arrears for seven (7) days after the first failed payment, Your access to the Platforms and Services may be restricted. During this time, Your Subscription will continue, and You will remain liable for all charges, including any accumulated arrears. Access will be fully restored once payment is made in full.
- 9.4 If Your account is not paid up to date within two (2) months of the first failed payment, Orkestra reserves the right to refer the matter to debt collectors. You will be responsible for any additional costs incurred for the collection of overdue payments. Orkestra may also terminate Your Subscription at this point and seek full payment for any outstanding amounts, including the total remaining of any fixed-term agreement. If an agreement for alternate payment terms or a payment plan is not reached within two (2) months of the first failed payment, Orkestra may consider this as Your termination of the Subscription, and an invoice for the full outstanding amount will be issued.

- 9.5 In the case of non-payment, Orkestra will notify You via automated emails sent to the email nominated in Your Billing Information and may also use in-app notifications. If payment has not been made after one (1) month, Orkestra may attempt to contact You by phone, in addition to sending automated communications. Orkestra reserves the right to send notifications at reasonable intervals, but it is not required to specify the exact number or frequency of such notifications.
- 9.6 You are responsible for cancelling Your Subscription via the Orkestra app. If You are in arrears, You will not be able to terminate Your Subscription until the full amount owed is paid. Failure to terminate Your Subscription does not relieve You of Your payment obligations, and You will continue to be charged until the full amount owed is paid and Your Subscription is terminated in accordance with the process set out in the Subscription Term and Termination clause below.
- 9.7 In the event that You fail to pay arrears, Orkestra may, at its discretion, restrict or terminate any current or future access to its Platforms or Subscription Services for Your Team and Your organisation
- 9.8 If You are unable to meet Your payment obligations due to financial hardship or other circumstances, You may contact Orkestra to discuss alternate payment arrangements, such as payment plans. Orkestra will consider such requests on a case-by-case basis, but is under no obligation to offer alternate arrangements.

10 SUBSCRIPTION TERM AND TERMINATION

- 10.1 Your Subscription will automatically renew upon the expiration of the current Subscription Term, unless You have terminated in accordance with our termination terms.
- 10.2 We may terminate Your Subscription at any time, at Our sole discretion, including but not limited to if we reasonably believe that You are in breach of the Terms or are using the Platforms or Subscription Services in a manner contrary to Our interests.
- 10.3 Subject to earlier termination as provided below, these Terms remain in effect for the Subscription Term as set out in the Specifications and shall be automatically renewed for additional periods of the same duration as the Subscription Term (each a “Subscription Term”), unless You or We terminate by providing at least five (5) business days’ notice prior to the end of the then current Subscription Term.

- 10.4 In addition to any other remedies it may have, either party may also terminate the Agreement upon seven (7) days’ written notice (or without notice in the case of non-payment, subject to clause 9), if the other party materially breaches any of the terms or conditions of these Terms and has not remedied the breach within seven (7) days of receipt of a written notice of that breach. In the case of non-payment, termination will proceed in accordance with the procedures outlined in clause 9, including any opportunities to remedy the breach through arrears payments or alternate arrangements. You will pay in full for the Subscription Services up to and including the last day on which the Subscription Services are provided or the last day of the then current Subscription Term (whichever is the latter), including the Service Price and any other fees as set out in the Specifications.
- 10.5 If You terminate Your Subscription before the end of Your current Subscription Term, You will maintain full access to Your chosen Subscription until the end of the Subscription Term.
- 10.6 Orkestra reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to block or reject any Subscription request, including during the verification process, without any obligation to provide reasons for its decision.
- 10.7 All sections of these Terms which by their nature should survive termination will survive termination, including, without limitation, accrued rights to payment, confidentiality obligations, warranty disclaimers, and limitations of liability.

11 LICENCE TO USE PLATFORMS AND OTHER ITEMS

- 11.1 We may provide You with certain other Items in connection with Your use of the Platforms.
- 11.2 Upon Your acceptance of these Terms and payment of any applicable Service Price, We grant You a licence to use the Platforms and other Items solely subject to these Terms. The licence created under these Terms is non-exclusive, limited, non-transferable, worldwide and irrevocable during the Term of the Agreement except if there is a breach of these Terms.
- 11.3 You may not use the Platforms or other Items for any purpose other than in accordance with the licence that is provided under this clause, and this licence to use the Platforms and other Items terminates upon Your cessation of use of the Items or upon termination of the Agreement.

If You do not understand the Agreement or do not agree to be bound by it then You must stop using the Items immediately.
